

More Details

This online movie shopping system is contained inside the Tomcat web server, once after I starting up my Tomcat, then go to the webpage <http://ruixuan.uicp.io:41893/testShopping> to take a look.

Or you can download the source code folder, unzip it. All the source codes, images, sounds, css files are inside the folder.

When open the index.jsp, you can see the webpage like this, with the functionalities of sign in/sign up, managing shopping cart, search for goods, commercial bulletin, ranking list of click through and also a part of goods information(every webpage has done the paging already).

All the movies are tagged and classified into 'US Movie' and 'OTHER', 'ABOUT' is a link refer to a summary of the system.

To sign in/sign up, you can do this process at index page or do that during shopping. To do at index page, click 'log in/sign up' link at the top right corner, then it would show the page like this.

After signing up, then you can use your password and username login as a customer. When browse the goods, click the icons for more details of goods. You can choose to purchase it or continue buying.

The screenshot shows a web browser displaying the 'RUIXUAN ZHANG ONLINE ORDER' website. The header features a green shopping cart icon with a sunburst, a blue shopping cart icon, and the text 'RUIXUAN ZHANG ONLINE ORDER'. On the right, there are links for '[Log in/Sign up]' and '[My Order]'. A red banner below the header says 'Welcome to my Website, Jeff!' and 'To log out, click here'. The main navigation bar has four tabs: 'INDEX', 'US MOVIE', 'OTHER', and 'ABOUT'. The 'US MOVIE' tab is selected, showing a list of movies. The first movie is 'Castle in the Sky', with a price of 8.0, ISBN: 7, Type: JP movie, and Publisher: Buena Vista Home. Below the movie details are two buttons: 'Purchase' and 'Back to Index'. The footer contains contact information: 'Contact Number: 4698188388', 'EMail: ruixuanz@smu.edu', and 'Copyright: Ruixuan'.

If you decide to purchase something, then click 'Purchase' button, webpage will redirect to the shopping cart management webpage. At here, you can change the quantity of the goods, or delete it, or continue to put other goods into the shopping cart. The total price will be calculated automatically. No need to worry about the shopping cart will lose the memory, because it is stored inside the HTTP Session that can share the data through different pages.

Once if you would like to settle the accounts, just click 'next step' button.

If you are already logged in at the index page, then no need to sign in again.
